

Build a Den

Can you and your child build a den?

This can either be done in the house or out in the garden. How can you make yours different? Talk about the different textures and colour. Big and small dens what can you put inside who would live in your den. This will get the children to use their imaginations.

